GARDNER-WEBB COLLEGE

4/1969

VOLUME II | BOILING SPRINGS, N. C. APRIL 1969 | NUMBER 7

THEODOSIUS BARTON (Bart) FORD IS FIRST JUNIOR AT GARDNER-WEBB

BOILING SPRINGS, N. C — Theodosius Barton (Bart) Ford of Greenville, S. C., and the Baptist State Convention of N. C. made correlating decisions on Nov. 13, 1968— both concerned Gardner-Webb College.

While Ford, oblivious of what the convention was doing that day, was making application to enter the junior year at Gardner-Webb College, the convention was voting to allow the college to put in the junior and senior years.

Ford's application has become the first of hundreds as the present sophomores begin making plans to remain at GW and others prepare to transfer from junior colleges.

It now appears that approximately 250 sophomores are planning to remain for the junior year.

Ford, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Jones Ford of 512 Dellwood Dr., Greenville, S. C., and the late Edward Eugene Ford first made application to attend Gardner-Webb on Oct. 11, 1966 and was accepted. However, he decided to attend Anderson Junior College where he is presently enrolled. He will graduate there this spring.

Ford graduated from Wade Hampton High School where he was in the Chemistry Club, Biology Club and Circle K. Club. He is considering teaching as a profession.

The first ten students to apply for the junior year are listed here. It is interesting to note that most of them have completed the first two years at G-W and have decided to return for degree work. They are Bart Ford, Greenville, S. C., William Lineberger, Shelby, Mrs. Margaret Shuford, Shelby; Linda Voncannon, Greensboro, Bobby Dean Peeler, Rt. 7, Shelby, John W. Herold, Rt. 2, Forest City; David Crouch, Newton; Claudia Lee Houser, Jacksonville, Fla.; Ronald Campe, Rt. 3, Shelby and Troy Harmon, Elkin.

Students Are Named As Voting Members of Committees

Dr. E. Eugene Poston, president, in the following letter made a dramatic move toward establishing better communications among the students, faculty and administration of GW. His letter explains completely the intent and purpose of this major step.

To: Faculty Committee Chairmen and
Students Appointed to Serve on Committees

Dear Co-Worker:

The following students are being appointed to the Committees of Gardner-Webb College. They are to have voting privileges, with the chairmanship of the committees remaining with the faculty and administration. This is an experiment designed to establish better communications among students, faculty and administration.

The senior college status for Gardner-Webb College is a tremendous undertaking. A spirit of unity will go a long way toward building a quality four-year program. Let us remember the purpose of Gardner-Webb and move toward its fulfillment—"To develop quality Christian students who will think for themselves and who will dedicate themselves to the Christian way of life in the vocation of their own choice."

Enclosed you will find a list of the committees and their duties. The chairmen are urged to call a meeting soon to acquaint the students with the work of the committees. Thanks for all your help in building a greater Christian college.

ALUMNI BANQUET SET FOR MAY 17

It's not too late to start making plans for attending the annual Alumni banquet which is slated for the evening of May 17 on the Gardner-Webb College campus.

You will note on page two the working committees which will make this the finest banquet ever. Your participation in the banquet will help you to keep up-to-date on the progress of GW and also give you an opportunity to meet old friends. Write for reservations today.

The "Alumnus or Alumna of the Year" will be announced at this banquet and new officers for the Alumni Association will be elected. In addition, there will be reports and general business following entertainment.

See Page Two for committee appointments.

For Those Who Remember Mr. Moseley – Here's Another

A freak basket recently by Gardner-Webb College's Alan Land for North Greenville brought back basketball memories for the jovial campus chemistry professor, M. A. Moseley.

It seems Moseley is the only "coach" on campus with a 100 percent record in the field. In the 1930's, he relates, he carried the Cowpens, S. C., young midget team to Spartanburg to play that city's youngsters.

Cowpens got off to a lead and at halftime had the hometeam 4-0. Moseley's major problem was a little lad who kept begging to get into the game. Finally, in the second half, Moseley put the boy in and he got the ball, ran the wrong way and tossed in a bucket for the Spartanburg club.

"I got him out before he defeated us," relates Moseley whose team went on to win 6-2. "So you see," he said, "I'm the only unbeaten coach around whose team also scored every point in the game."

After this game "Coach" Moseley retired from the field and concentrated on science.

First Quarterly Alumni Meeting Is Now Slated

Alumni President Dan Camp has called the association's first quarterly meeting since the January 30 vote changing the body's meetings from semi-annually to quarterly.

Correction

We regret an error in "With the Alumni" news in the March edition. It was stated that Rev. James B. Sides '56 had resigned his pastorate at Pleasant Grove Church, Shelby to become pastor of the First Baptist Church of Valdese. This was in error. Rev. Sides has been pastor of the First Church in Wadesboro since January of 1968.

Basketball Camp Is Planned In June

Eddie Holbrook, head basketball coach at Gardner-Webb College, announced the dates and staff for the "Second Annual Gardner-Webb Bulldog Basketball School" at Gardner-Webb. The school, under the direction of Holbrook, has been expanded to two sessions: June 8-13 (Boarding school), June 16-20 (Day School). Last year only the day school was held.

The staff for 1969 is tops in the field of basketball. Along with Coach Holbrook will be Dean Smith, head basketball coach of the University of North Carolina Tar Heels; Bucky Waters, head basketball coach at West Virginia University; Larry Brown and Doug Moe, former ACC stars at UNC now with the Oaks; Horace (Bones) McKinney, former head basketball coach at Wake Forest University; Ron Hooper, assistant basketball coach at Gardner-Webb College plus area high school coaches and Gardner-Webb players.

Students Can Travel Abroad This Summer

College students interested in a three week all inclusive tour of eight European countries have an opportunity to make such a trip on an economical basis.

Thomas J. McGraw, vice-president of Gardner-Webb College, is in charge of a tour which leaves New York July 19 for visits to Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Austria and Liechtenstein, Italy, France and England.

The cost of $750 includes travel, housing, food, services of native tour guides, baggage to 44 pounds, and all tips except those of a personal nature. If interested, write Mr. McGraw at the college for a brochure and other information.

It Snowed, and Snowed, But We Ate Every Meal

Emily Rice may not get into the history books but she was a famous lady February 16 on the Gardner-Webb College campus.

Over 300 persons, stranded by the area's worst snow storm in decades, were hungry and in need of breakfast which they could hardly have hoped to find in the college cafeteria. Emily Rice, Slater Food Service employee, was the only person to get in to work and she saved the day.

She cooked heaping plates of eggs, bacon and grits with juice and coffee to greet surprised but appreciative students, stranded parents, visiting high school basketball players, and other guests.

Recruitment possibilities with visiting high school stars improved greatly with this breakfast and next year's success in basketball may rest partly on the fact that Emily Rice was willing to brave the snow and ice to carry out her duties.

By noon three Slater employees were on hand and were given assistance by Rev. Buddy Freeman, the college minister, and Mrs. Freeman, Miss Nancy Sorrells, dean of women; Lois Sorrells, her sister, and around 30 students pitched in to insure meals for the remainder of the day.

All the students gave their time and were volunteers to help make it possible for their fellow students to eat. Mr. Robert Reed, manager of the cafeteria, praised the persons who made it possible for the cafeteria to open. His repeated efforts during the day to drive in from Shelby failed each time.

Alumna Demonstrates Spirit of 'Web'

Few things can mean so much to a college community, and especially the Alumni Office, than to have a former student continue strong working ties with the college.

Mrs. Joyce Shronce Reel '67 has volunteered to be Class Agent for the Class of 1967—perhaps the most vital job of any for those hundreds of friends, once so close at GW but now scattered across the nation and interested in how their classmates are getting along.

Write her at Rt. 3, Rutledge, Tenn., 37861 and give her your latest news. It is only fair that you hear about her first. Since leaving GW, she has continued her studies at Carson-Newman College in Jefferson City, Tenn, and on August 10, 1968, married Thomas Reel, an employee of the Magnavox Co in Jefferson City. She will do practice teaching at Rutledge High School this Spring and after graduation the couple hopes to move back to North Carolina.

She praises THE WEB and asks for more news about Mr. Stacy, Mr. Moseley, Mr. Osborne, Miss Jones, "Mom" Goodwin and others on campus. A good suggestion is a column by Dr. Poston with lines of advice or sermonettes. Mrs. Reel states that the students love and admire Dr. Poston and that he could have influence for Jesus Christ through the column.
